

ASTON MARTIN

Red Bull
RACING

23/33

31 AUGUST 2019

BELGIAN GP – QUALIFYING

CHRISTIAN HORNER, Team Principal

“The tragic death of Formula 2 driver Anthoine Hubert at Spa today is a reminder of just how cruel motorsport, the sport we love, can be sometimes. In his rookie season, Anthoine was demonstrating to be a star of the future having already won races in Monaco and France this year. On behalf of Aston Martin Red Bull Racing, our thoughts are with Anthoine’s family, Renault and the BWT Arden team, which is close to my heart. Our thoughts are also with Juan Manuel and his family at this time.”

MAX VERSTAPPEN, Position: 5th 1:43.690 (Practice 3 – P5 1:45.312)

ALEX ALBON, Position: 14th 1:45.799* (Practice 3 – P20 1:50.681)

*Alex will start tomorrow’s race from 18th due to an engine penalty

ENDS